

Tribute to Victor Laidlaw

I was greatly saddened to hear this week of the death of Rev Victor Laidlaw. I first met Victor when he was one of the assessors at my selection school for the ministry in 1995 but got to know him when I arrived in Dunfermline Presbytery where he had retired with his wife Shiela after a 33 year long ministry in St Catherine's Argyll in Edinburgh. Victor was unfailingly supportive, helpful, generous with his time, and in all he did his deep faith showed through. He was Moderator of Dunfermline Presbytery in 2014 to 2015 and a well known preacher around the pulpits of the town.

His service of thanksgiving will be at St Andrew's East Church in Dunfermline on Friday 11th September at 11.30 following a private cremation service. The 11.30 service will be streamed and details will follow.

Taizé style worship

at St Serf's Church, Ferguson Place,

Then winter times, 4 pm on 1 November
6 December

After the afternoon worship times, there will be opportunity to stay for a tea / coffee if you wish.

What is Taizé worship? It is a reflective style of worship, which we enter and leave in silence. Taizé music emphasizes simple phrases, usually lines from Psalms or other pieces of scripture, repeated and sometimes sung in canon. But Taizé worship is more than music. Scripture, prayer, and silence come together in the Taizé experience to create a simple, deep encounter with God. As part of the service, you may light a candle if you wish. For more information about Taizé worship, you can visit the international website for the Taizé community: <https://www.taize.fr/en>.

All welcome – just come!

Great North Run Fundraiser

Back in May we had a piece regarding a great north run fundraiser to be held by Howard Stevens in support of Christian Aid. The run is coming up soon, and he has a few words about it here:

“As you may know I am doing the Great North Run on Sunday 13th September to raise money for Christian Aid. I have a target of £395 to raise and I wondered if some of the folk who get the newsletter would consider making a donation. My Enthuse giving page is <https://ajbellgreatnorthrun2026.enthuse.com/pf/howard-stevens>.

My story is that I received an email from Christian Aid as I am a supporter of the charity. They asked if anyone wanted to do the run and I applied. To my surprise they said yes so I agreed to do it. I have never run a distance race before so I am having to do quite a lot of training to get fit enough to complete the run which I am quite enjoying. It is a half marathon i.e. 13 miles and is held in Newcastle. I am looking forward to it and my family is going to come and support me on my run. However, the main aim of doing the run is to raise money for Christian Aid and any donation, no matter how small, would be greatly appreciated.”

Volunteer needed for Presbytery Newsletter

As you may be aware, the Fife Presbytery Weekly Newsletter has been produced by Stewart Lennon for the past year.

After much thought, Stewart has decided he will be stepping back from the role of producing the newsletter from mid-September, as he is returning to his studies and will no longer have the time to commit to the newsletter.

We are looking for someone who is willing to volunteer as the new editor for the Presbytery Newsletter.

If you, or someone you know, is interested, please email Evelyn at econnell@churchofscotland.org.uk

We wish Stewart the best in his studies, and hold him in our prayers!

Person Specification: National Assessors

Task Description

Faith Action is looking for people with appropriate skills to engage in assessment work as part of the Discernment & Admissions Processes. The requirements of National Assessors will be to:

- chair Local Review meetings, conducted online, at which decisions are made as to whether or not Applicants may proceed to a National Assessment Conference. Local Review meetings normally last up to 2.5 hrs per Applicant and Assessors are required to write up an agreed Local Review Report based on six assessment headings within 3 working days of a Review
 - work with teams of Assessors at National Assessment Conferences, assessing the suitability of Applicants for acceptance as Candidates in training for Church of Scotland ministry. Assessment Conferences last for 3 days each, during which Applicants are seen over a 30 hour period. Each National Assessor is responsible for writing up to 2 reports per Conference within tight time discipline, before working with the team to consider and decide upon up to 10 Applicants
 - work with teams of Assessors at Admissions Conference for ministers applying to serve the Church of Scotland from other denominations. Admissions Conference runs similarly to the National Assessment Conference
 - chair Interim and Final Reviews for Admissions Candidates on Familiarisation Placement, conducted online, which review progress during the placement and make a final decision as to a Candidates suitability to transfer to Ministry in the Church of Scotland.
 - occasionally serve on Transfer Panels for those applying to transfer from one ministry to another
- The engagement of National Assessors is on a voluntary basis, but expenses incurred in the course of the work are reimbursed at rates set by Faith Action.

Skills and Aptitudes

In order to complete the task, National Assessors must show aptitude for, receive training in, and reach demonstrated competence in the following core skills:

- interviewing techniques;
- assessment techniques;
- listening and observation;
- report writing

Potential Assessors will engage in a selection process and commit themselves to initial training and ongoing training on an annual basis.

In order to complete the interviews to a satisfactory level, interviewers will also need to be able to:

- interpret body-language
- reflect back and check out assumptions
- assess Applicants' integrity, preparedness, interpersonal and reflective skills, and awareness of issues of transition to ministry
- elicit information about and assess Applicants' Christian experience and commitment
- understand and interpret Applicants' description of a sense of calling

In order to complete reports to a satisfactory level, interviewers will need to be able to:

- write critically with sensitivity in an open-reporting system;
- follow guidelines for style of report-writing and meet deadlines

Interviewers will themselves have excellent interpersonal skills, openness to giving and receiving constructive criticism, and a disciplined approach to meeting deadlines. They will also have an understanding of the ethos of the Church of Scotland and its ministries, a demonstrable Christian commitment, and an ability to empathise with the wide range of theological outlooks within the Church of Scotland and across other denominations.

Weekly Prayer

We give thanks, Creator God, for the stubborn beauty and ruggedness of the world – for soil that still yields, for bees that still find flowers, for the rocks that bear us,
for the kindness of strangers and the courage of campaigners.

We give thanks for those who relate to the Earth with love and with science and with faith – for eco-congregations who refuse to look away,
for farmers and foresters and climate scientists,
for the young people who march and the elders who remember.

We give thanks that the Light still shines in the darkness, that the Word still speaks in wind and water, that we are held, even now, in the One in whom we live and move and have our being. Thanks be to God.

We pray for a world in crisis and a Church learning to respond.

We pray for communities on the frontlines of climate change – for those losing land to rising seas, for those whose harvests fail in drought, for those displaced by floods and fires they did nothing to cause.

May our advocacy be as loud as our prayer.

We pray for our political leaders –
for courage to act beyond the next election cycle,
for wisdom to choose justice over short-term growth,
for ears open to the cry of the Earth and the cry of those with lived experience of poverty, which are so often one cry.

We pray for Eco-Congregation Scotland and congregations like us – may our buildings, our budgets, and our voices reflect the values we profess.

May we be communities of genuine belonging – belonging to this earth, belonging to each other, belonging to You.

We pray for the more-than-human world:
for species on the edge, for rivers running low, for soils stripped bare.
May we be part of their healing, not the continuation of their harm.

Hear our prayer.

From Church of Scotland

Amen
